The Review Process

Applicants to Pitt Public Health will be notified by email when their application is received from SOPHAS or SOPHAS Express and when it is complete. They will also be periodically emailed with the status of an incomplete application. Applicants should be alert for these messages. Be sure to add both stuaff@pitt.edu and donotreply@webadmit.org to your safe-senders list.

The admission review generally takes 4-6 weeks on average. This may vary by program, though. Some programs do not begin reviewing applications until after the Fall deadline. All applicants will be notified by email with the final admission decision. Accepted applicants will also receive an official letter in the mail.

Fall 2016 Deadline: January 15, 2016
