<tr>
<td>Academic Integrity</td>
<td>The School adheres to the University of Pittsburgh’s policy. All new students and faculty are required to complete an online module. All course syllabi are to include the School’s academic integrity policy statement. All violations of academic integrity are to be reported via the School’s academic integrity violation form. Questions concerning academic integrity can be brought to the attention of the school’s academic integrity officer.</td>

<tr>
<td>Classrooms</td>
<td>Classrooms in the school are: A115, A215, A216, A425, A522, A622, and A719. Our courses have first priority regarding scheduling classes. Your department’s student services coordinator is the point person for classroom reservations and information. Technology training for the media equipment in the classrooms (all except for A622) is maintained and provided by the University Center for Teaching and Learning.</td>

<tr>
<td>Course Evaluations</td>
<td>All courses are to be evaluated each semester. Course evaluations are managed by the University’s Office of Measurement and Evaluation of Teaching (OMET). Consult your departmental student services coordinator for details.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Course Planning</td>
<td>University Center for Teaching and Learning offers an extensive selection of workshops &amp; services. The Teaching Center also offers individualized consultations that encompass all aspects of course planning.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Course Scheduling</td>
<td>Course meeting days and times are managed centrally by the University Registrar and internally by the School’s Office of Student Affairs. Departmental student services coordinators update course schedules annually during a course proofing period. Coordinators will then contact faculty directly to update course details.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grading Process</td>
<td>Final semester grades are due to be entered into the online course and student management system (PeopleSoft), approximately 4 days after the end of the semester.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grading Scale</td>
<td>Pitt uses an A - F letter grade scale based on a 4.0 GPA. For courses where students do not complete coursework due to special circumstances occurring at the end of the term, a “G” grade is to be assigned. G grades are to be resolved within one year.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Online Course System</td>
<td>The University utilizes Canvas as the web-based course management software. All courses are automatically provided with a course shell in Canvas each semester.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student Affairs Staff</td>
<td>The School’s Office of Student Affairs is located in G009 Public Health. You can send general questions to stuaff@pitt.edu.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student System</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching Assistant Services</td>
<td>University Center for Teaching and Learning offers comprehensive resources that prepare graduate student instructors to meet their teaching assistant goals and responsibilities.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Technology</td>
<td>Classroom technology services are provided by the University Center for Teaching and Learning. General technology services are provided by Pitt IT. School departments also offer IT support. The Center for Teaching and Learning loans out computers &amp; other educational technology tools, and will deliver technology (when pre-arranged with staff) to your classroom.</td>

Quick Tips | How to...

Canvas

Make Course Available

In the Courses tab (left side), if your course is in Unpublished courses, click on the “Publish” button in the top left corner.

PeopleSoft

Access the Faculty Center

1. Log in to My Pitt (my.pitt.edu) with your University Computer Account username and password
2. Click The left navigation menu automatically collapses when you select any link from your PeopleSoft Home Page.

View Class Rosters

Rosters appear as subtabs under the Faculty Center tab. Class rosters become available as soon as students register in the class. Grade rosters are available as identified on the calendar which is available on the Academic Resources portal page.

View Student Photos in Class Roster

Student photographs display on the class and advisee rosters. The Class Roster includes a section for enrolled students, where you have the option to view links to student photos next to each student ID number or to expand the list to include thumbnail images (where available) of each student. When the Link to Photos (default) option is selected, click to view a thumbnail image (if available) of that student. Or select include photos in list for the student photos to appear in the roster list. Click View All to see all student thumbnails on the page or click the right and left arrows to scroll from student to student.

Submit grades

View the how to document & video available on My Pitt > PeopleSoft Faculty Access by clicking Learn More.

Change grades

1. Log in to My Pitt (my.pitt.edu) with your University Computer Account credentials.
2. Next, click the Faculty Center link on the right side of your portal homepage.
3. Navigate to the Grade Change Request folder click Self Service>Faculty Center>Grade Change Request
